Good day,

Well, here we are again, preparing for another Atlantic Region Aircraft Maintenance Conference in Halifax in 2025, and we're excited to carry forward the momentum from last year's show in Moncton.

We've revamped how we are doing sponsorship; the Sponsorship form outlines the new format. Prize donations for our Critique Sheet prize-giveaways are still appreciated.

A finalized agenda will be provided in due course; however, here is a brief overview: April 23rd will be set-up-day, followed by the Meet-and-Greet that evening. The conference officially begins on the 24th and the Industry Social and awards event will take place that same evening. Exhibit disassembly begins at noon on the 25th, with Technical Sessions continuing until early afternoon. Closing remarks by the Chair, closing of Silent Auction, and prize-draws for delegates, concluding the event will follow.

The ARAMC Speaker Committee is seeking education session speakers. These sessions must provide content relevant to Aircraft Maintenance Operations, safety, or Professional Development, and may not be specific company marketing/sales presentations, or otherwise commercial in nature. Presentations will be selected based on industry need/priority and quality of the response for this call for speakers. If interested, please confirm via: psmith@gastops.com

The continued of Exhibitor support ensures the success and viability of the ARAMC, so thank you in advance, and I look forward to greeting you in April.
